The Sacred Royal Birth

The Freedom Remedy

*It is in the seed of life
Egg fertilization by sperm*

It is essential that the concept of the Sacred Royal Birth is understood by every adult, especially the mother and child.

They must know why the human being is Royal (magnificent) & Sacred (natural purpose)

Sacred, meaning: inborn with a natural purpose for living

Royal, meaning: Magnificent, the most excellent kind!

Questions to stimulate: Why Adults and children should be taught the Sacred Royal birth?

Do you know how parents have upgraded the way they raise children? What new tools and technology do they use to raise children ?

What technologies have you or someone you know utilized or employed to improve the future plight of a baby?

How have babies/children evolved to access its greatest human potential and to know what is available to them 24/7 to be more effective, efficient, solve problems, be productive, and change what needs to be change?

What sciences have you or someone you know read or made application, employed on how to improve the future of all babies born in your neighborhood, community, state and the nation?

What's new to be accomplished by the children you know that will become adults? Is there anything new that the baby can be taught to seek and accomplish? What should a child be taught and how should it be taught to create a greater future America?

Why the baby is a Sacred Royal birth and what it received in the womb of the mother:

1) The strongest living sperm cell that did not die in the uterus but survived the journey by getting into the egg of the womb to become a living human being. That sperm cell is a living organism that had the greatest desire, strength and purpose to be birth. All the other living sperm cells died.

By getting into the egg, this one sperm received the necessary DNA to become a Sacred Royal Birth.

2) Received the capacity to think in the sacred royal birth: Think new thoughts and facts and transcend old thoughts and old facts. The human being is the only species that knows the difference between an old thought/fact and new thought/fact

3) Primed to develop the ability to reflect in the royal birth: Reflect on the past (old thoughts and facts) and create new thoughts and facts.

4) Primed to develop the ability to project in the royal birth: Project new thoughts and facts. Projection is the seed of creation and innovation.

After birth the human being:

5) The human being is the only race that can project from its imagination and create a new reality on earth. It is unlimited in its human potential and possibility.

6) The human being has the potential to have dominion over all other species on earth.

7) It is a change agent in the world. It can improve and change that what it desires.

8) The human being is designed to solve problems. It is a problem-solver.

9) The human being has the capacity to unify with all other human beings.

10) The human being is essentially equal to all other human being.)

11) The human being has the capacity to change the World.

No longer can we continue to do what our ancestors did. Raise boys and girls in America according to their sex, skin color, ethnic heritage without them first knowing how they are human birth with a natural purpose and that they are magnificent like all other humans. We cannot afford to continue to raise children and send them to school to get a good education to get a good job and be a work animal. The way the children are being raised in this culture today is detrimental to themselves and America.

The Sacred Royal Birth- All Children

The children and the nurturer of the children must know they are Sacred & Royal and know that they Human; The human being is sacred and royal, meaning: Birth with an inborn or natural purpose and is the most excellent race on earth and essentially equal to all humans. The child must know for themselves what happen in conception; what was received in the womb, what potential they received at birth. The child must be taught and know what happen to their ancestors concerning the Truth and the history of the institution of Slavery and the absences of rights for women as the male established the United States government. Also, what did happen and what did not happen in regards to the Declaration of Independence and Emancipation Proclamation.

The children must be taught what happen in America before their birth and how it relates to them in present time. The child must know how to become a mature adult, Community Agent. The Adult must know what is childish and what childish things to put behind them.

Parents and nurturer of children must model, embody and represent the sacred royal birth to instruct the child after birth how to perceive self as the most excellent kind, as royal and to act in that way at home, school, church and community.

Why should we continue to nurture the children to get an education to be a Laborer/Worker? Why not rear them to know they are a sacred royal adult human that seeks to live at one's highest human possibility through learning, making application and employing the Freedom Remedy, to solve problems in the community, city and state where they reside, live out the American Creed, demonstrate to the nation in one's behavior, reverence, respect, and appreciation for women at all times, make women first in ones' life and to generate wealth to create a greater future for women and children of their nation. The statements above is why and key insights to rear all the children for a greater purpose.
